BOY PIANIST OF CHATHAM

SAM SOURS.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Rocky Mount, Va., June 22.—Richmond rang this spring with the plaudits of John Powell, her boy piano virtuoso, fresh-crowned with European laurels. A few years hence Chatham will hail from abroad a genius of her own. Sam Sours, a slender, delicate-faced lad of sixteen, a graduate in music of Chatham Institute, who has delighted all who heard him by his wonderful playing. John Powell was one of these and was very enthusiastic over him, declaring that he gave wonderful promise. He will go to Vienna to study a year from next fall, continuing his studies meanwhile under Miss Titus, director of music at Chatham Institute.

Mr. Sours was the chief attraction at a beautiful concert given at Rocky Mount last week, under the auspices of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Episcopal Church. His numbers were Grieg's "Sonata in E Minor," Chopin's "Scherzo in B Flat Minor," Fritsch's "Melodie and Valse and Schumann's "Concerto in A Minor," first movement. Miss Titus playing second piano. He also gave a number of charming encores.

His playing is so full, artistic, brilliant, his touch delicate and sweet, and his sense of interpretation dictates. He held the rapt attention of his audience and left them wildly enthusiastic. Mr. Sours also played exquisitely the accompaniments of his teacher, Miss Anna C. Titus, of New York, who contributed several numbers to the program. Her voice is sweet and rich and beautifully trained, and she sings with much charm. Her numbers were "The Lorelei," by Liszt; "To a Messenger,"
